Mr. William P. Maddox
 Director
 Foreign Service Institute
 Department of State
 Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Maddox:

I was delighted to learn that the series of lectures on certain aspects of our work, delivered by CIA staff members during February, proved valuable in the training of your Foreign Service officers. Messrs. [redacted] will confer with you soon in order to help plan a repetition of such a program in your future courses for Foreign Service officers.

I should also like to take this occasion to thank you and your staff at the Foreign Service Institute for the many services you have rendered us. We are particularly appreciative for the excellent language instruction our people have received from Mr. Smith and his staff and for the orientation in State Department procedures given in your regular courses.

Sincerely yours,

sgd & disp 6/2/49
